

Practice Question Health & Safety

1. What is the first stage of the hierarchy of risk control?
 - a) reduce risk by reducing exposure to hazard
 - b) provide PPE to protect against the hazard
 - c) eliminate the hazard(s) giving rise to the risk
 - d) produce a risk assessment to identify risk arising out of hazards

2. What is the last stage of the hierarchy of risk control?
 - a) reduce risk by reducing exposure to hazard
 - b) provide PPE to protect against the hazard
 - c) eliminate the hazard(s) giving rise to the risk
 - d) produce a risk assessment to identify risk arising out of hazards

3. Under RIDDOR 2013, which of the following is reportable?
 - a) minor burns (less than 10%)
 - b) three day accident
 - c) calling an ambulance
 - d) an injury at work resulting in more than 7 consecutive days off

4. What is the lower exposure action value under the Noise at Work Regulations?
 - a) 80dB
 - b) 85dB
 - c) 70dB
 - d) 75dB

5. What is the higher exposure action value under the Noise at Work Regulations?
 - a) 75dB
 - b) 90dB
 - c) 92dB
 - d) 85dB

6. Under LOLER what is the testing period for lifting equipment carrying people?
 - a) 6 months
 - b) 12 months
 - c) 24 months
 - d) 18 months